Cal Poly’s Winter Quarter Production

Our Town

Hailed by many as… the greatest American play ever written, Our Town is about life in Grover’s Corners, New Hampshire. Thornton Wilder’s play is beloved by generations for its exploration of Marriage, and Death and Burial. This re-imagining of Thornton Wilder’s classic story is a remarkably universal yet personal portrait of our collective humanity, an American tale about family, friendship, love, death, and a life worth living.

Tickets are $12 for Cal Poly Students

Social Justice Leadership Conference

Our Town

This conference aims to empower students and the University community to challenge social norms, open critical conversations, demand solutions, and demand to move the needle on social change. Through guest speakers, inspiring workshops, and engaging sessions, students will leave the conference more aware and engaged in becoming thoughtful and active citizens.
